

MONROE RULE LIVES: HARDING

U. S. WILL FIGHT TO MAINTAIN IT, WORLD IS TOLD

President Speaks on Bolivar Day.

BY JAMES WHITTAKER.

New York, April 19.—[Special.]—The stage was set for four hours this afternoon from which President Warren G. Harding spoke to the world.

The stage fitted the event, which was a fitting tribute to the late President Monroe. The appearance of the unveiling of the statue of Simon Bolivar, South American patriot and emancipator, to reveal to two anxious continents a part of the workings of the president's mind on international problems.

Fifth avenue, from the Waldorf Astoria hotel to Central park and on up the newly christened "Bolivar" hill, near Central park west, and Eighty-first street, was a scene of Pan-Americanism.

All Americans Take Part.

Ten thousand flags of northern and southern America and many times ten thousand men and women—many of them olive-skinned Latins from southern republics—made a wake of cheers and waving flags and handkerchiefs in the path of Harding's car.

The president announced in his speech that America is ready now to fight for the Monroe doctrine, if the need should arise. He said that our nation had proved by its amalgamation of forty-eight states into a friendship union that the principle of arbitration and just settlement of state disputes is not only possible but profitable.

A Word to the World.

And then, when he had done with the Bolivar, he went to another place and another subject and spoke humbly, aspirationally of charity, faith and hope. This was in the assembly hall of the Lighthouse Association for the blind at 111 East Fifty-ninth street, where 300 blind men and women wept and cheered while the president spoke and his voice was not quite steady.

"If God grant that I may ever bring light where there has been darkness, my word or deed of mine—"

He did not finish that sentence.

Bring Party from Capital.

Harding arrived at the Pennsylvania station at 2:26 p. m. in a special car which besides himself brought Mr. Harding, Secretary George B. Chauncey, Jr., Col. George Harvey, Senators Frelinghuysen and New, Brig. Gen. Charles E. Sawyer, President Harding's personal physician, and Charles Kling, a cousin of Mr. Harding, to spend "Bolivar day" in New York and take part in the exercises which attended the unveiling of the statue to Bolivar.

A large segment of official Washington attended the president for the occasion. An hour before the presidential train rolled into the station a party which was entertained by Secretary of State Hughes, arrived and was taken to the Waldorf Astoria hotel, where they attended a luncheon given by the Venezuelan mission to a host of Latin-American celebrities.

At the Waldorf the president stopped just long enough to enter the room in which the congregated diplomats were lunching and to shake hands with the guests. The automobile line reformed and started up Fifth avenue to Bolivar.

Ceremony of the Unveiling.

President Harding and Mrs. Harding took their places in the stand, only to be immediately as the police band broke the first measure of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Rodman Wamaker took charge. He motioned aside as he led Mr. La Guardia, St. Patrick's cathedral for the unveiling of the statue of Bolivar.

Dr. E. G. Borgas, Venezuelan minister for foreign relations, initiated the real speechmaking. He spoke in Spanish and almost inaudibly.

Two little nervous girls were revealed. They were Mariquita and Patricia MacManus, daughters of Senator MacManus, the American poet, chosen to perform the unveiling of Bolivar's statue because they are also granddaughters of Gen. Jose Anton Paez, brother in arms to Bolivar.

The MacManus girls put sturdily at the ropes. And the crowd rises to cheer the magnificent bronze image of Bolivar on his battle horse which the unveiling of Bolivar and Venezuelan flags has revealed.

Mayor Hylan speaks briefly, thanking Venezuela through Mr. G. B. Chauncey, for the gift of the statue. Gov. Miller speaks next. He has studied the life of the South American patriot and tells us about Bolivar's battles. Harding speaks serenely. Once he

GIRL EXHUMED TO SIFT MYSTERY OF 'LOVE BUNGALOW'

Father Asks Inquiry; Then Drops It.

Mysterious circumstances surrounding the death on April 5 in Los Angeles, Cal., of Miss Marie Vance, daughter of William W. Vance, a Glenwood dentist, yesterday caused the exhumation of the girl's body from Rosehill cemetery and may lead to criminal prosecutions.

The exhumation was ordered by Coroner Hoffman following a complaint by the girl's father. Since the complaint was made, however, Mr. Vance has suffered a change of mind—he now declares he desires no investigation.

Finds Romance on Train.

Miss Vance left Chicago in March, 1920. She was to visit Mr. and Mrs. Burt E. Emery, relatives at Los Angeles. On the train she met a man giving the name of Robert S. Lockhart, a retired merchant of Covington, Va. They fell in love and planned to be married. A "honeymoon bungalow" was purchased in Los Angeles and furnished. Lockhart brought his three daughters to California. The five lived in the bungalow.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery protested against this arrangement, dispatches say, and were told to "mind their own business," as "Miss Vance was 32 years old and able to take care of herself."

Girl Dies, Man Leaves.

The girl became ill a month ago. On March 25 an emergency operation was performed and she died on April 5. Lockhart left Los Angeles about this time.

Mr. Vance advanced $600 to have the body of his daughter brought here. It arrived in a sealed casket. The death certificate gave the cause of death as diphtheria. The family was not allowed to view the body and funeral services were prohibited by the health department.

It became known that a few days before the girl's death she had killed all her property to an aunt, Mrs. Flora Deldine of Los Angeles, with whom she had been living. The property consisted of personal effects and Miss Vance's equity in the "honeymoon bungalow." The will has been filed for probate.

Love Wrecked, Eyes Death.

It also was learned that Miss Vance had discovered Lockhart had been married twice and she didn't know whether or not he was divorced. After learning this, dispatches say, "she lost all interest in life and declared she wished to die."

On Feb. 26 Miss Vance wrote to her father asking for a small amount of money. It was sent. He heard no further word until he received notice of her death. Yesterday he went to Coroner Hoffman with his story. Last night he announced he had changed his mind.

"I have discovered I was wrong," he said. "I don't wish to start criminal prosecution. My statement that the casket had been tampered with was erroneous."

Plans Drastic Action.

Coroner's Chemist McNally is making chemical analyses to determine the exact cause of the girl's death. J. M. O'Connell, special agent for the California medical examiner at Los Angeles, announced he planned drastic action if the investigation holds up.

"Her death was natural," said Mrs. Deldine in Los Angeles. "Funny," was the verdict of Mr. and Mrs. Emery. Lockhart, four years of age, at first denied his identity.

"Don't know Miss Vance and haven't any knowledge of the affair," he said. The sheriff declared Lockhart had just returned from California.

HOUSEWIVES' UNION MAKES ANGRY PROTEST

Washington, D. C., April 19.—[Special.]—Describing the eight-hour work-day and the forty-four hour week as "crimes against civilization" in these reconstruction days, and their approval as an affront to every woman who wields a weighty flatiron or sweaters over a sizzling stove, the "Association of overworked, underpaid, dishwashing housewives" has addressed a petition to members of congress against any legislation recognizing limited hours of labor.

The headquarters of the petitioning association are declared in the petition to be "by the cook stove and the cradle with the wash tub nearby." The document contains numerous shots at legislation which makes work easier for the male and winds up with the following:

"We believe that congress should realize that those who cherish ambition for political advancement may find that support by a labor organization will prove a handicap and not an asset."

MEXICAN TRAIN HELD UP; TROOPS CHASING BANDITS

El Paso, Tex., April 19.—A Mexican national train from Mexico City, due here at 12:55 this afternoon was held up at Saug, 300 kilometers south of Juarez some time this morning.

Reports by the Juarez police said the holdup was by a band headed by Nicolas Rodriguez, a former Villa general. A report that Enrique Creel, former ambassador to the United States, and his brother-in-law, Alberto Terrazas, were among those robbed could not be confirmed.

A company of infantry and a troop of cavalry left for Saug this afternoon.

POTS DAM SEES THE DEAD PAST BURY ITS DEAD

Old Regime Honors Kaiserin.

BY GEORGE SELDES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] [Copyright 1921. By The Chicago Tribune.] [POTSDAM, April 19.—(By Wire.)]—The body of the former German empress and the hopes of the Hohenzollern dynasty were laid in the same grave here today.

A majestic silence enveloped the palace and the heads of the people were bowed, for they mourned not alone the death of the German mother, but also the passing of the old order of imperial Germany.

A democratic sun glowed over the republican land and sprung awake in millions of pink, purple, blue, and white blossoms in the palace gardens.

The funeral procession went by without music and without a whisper—only the dull tread of slow moving feet and the clank of the hoofs of the four black Arabian horses which drew the former royal hearse.

Dead Past Buries Its Dead.

A dead past was burying its dead fittingly.

Was there in the scene a hint that while the Hohenzollerns were passing the spirit of royalty was not itself extinct?

More than 100,000 persons attended the funeral and 20,000 black clad men and women filled the palace gardens. Others filled nearby roofs and windows.

First in the procession came 100 equestrians, representing spiritual glory; then came the former empress' favorite cuirassiers, representing military glory; then three men carrying the former kaiserin's orders and decorations, representing worldly glory.

Purple Robe Covers Casket.

Next came the coffin, without flowers, its only cover being a purple, gold, and ermine cloak of royalty.

Following the coffin walked a lone figure bearing a wreath of yellow roses—the kaiserin's favorite flowers—the last gift of the exiled ex-kaiser in Holland.

The royal family followed. The crown princess leaned on the arm of the ex-kaiser's second son, Elitel Friedrich. Then came Princes Adalbert, August, Wilhelm, and Oscar, in full uniform as commanders of divisions.

Then the Kigs of Saxony, knights of the Black Eagle, the King of Bulgaria, and the four little sons of the crown prince dressed in sailor suits, marched by.

War Chiefs in Line.

Now, after a break in the procession, Hindenburg and Ludendorff, mechanically keeping step and, seemingly, trying to give the impression that their sun had not set and that again it might shine upon the regime they represented. A murmur passed through the crowd.

For a moment it seemed as if an ovation would be accorded Hindenburg, but with a wave of his field marshal's baton, the former war chief forbade any such demonstration.

Von Tirpitz clad as the grand fleet admiral followed, he being the only officer who forgot himself so far as to give and take salutes from naval officers at the roadside. Mackensen, Falkenhayn, Moltke, Von Kluck, and Gellwiler were also there. Altogether there were at least a hundred generals in line.

Turk Leaders Present.

Noticeable in the van of the procession were many red fezzed Turks, leaders of that regime which ordered the massacre of Christians, whose names head the entente's war criminal list.

The Romanoff family was represented by Russian dukes, princes, and delegations of czarist regiments. Cossacks in their gorgeous uniforms brought a touch of oriental splendor to the pageant.

From the railroad station to the Antique temple the procession made its way.

The body of the former empress passed the statue which the kaiser erected in her honor decades ago; then past the row of trees the kaiserin herself had planted—one for each prince she bore—and then past the special tree set out to commemorate the outbreak of the world war in 1914.

Body Laid to Rest.

The Antique temple was a mass of flowers. Only fifty kismen attended the services. The choir from the Don cathedral sang "I Know that My Savior Lives." The former kaiser's chapel, the Rev. Mr. Dryander, spoke briefly and then the ebony coffin was placed in the marble sarcophagus. The kaiserin's yellow standard was placed above the tomb.

Chief Orders Police Force "Piperizing"

Chief of Police Fitzmorris threw down the gauntlet to "unfit" policemen yesterday by establishing a corps of secret agents to "Piperize" the department, the cleanup job and authorize WM. J. HEFFERNAN, him to employ as many investigators as he sees fit. In the sweeping powers delegated to Alcock, the order is the most revolutionary which has hit the department in years.

May Act Himself.

"And if Alcock falls down, though I don't think he will, I will attach the investigators to my own office and do the job myself," the chief said before catching the midnight train for Springfield, where he will participate in the anti-crime field day before the state senate today.

The chief has a $50,000 contingent fund to finance the drive to get rid of lazy, bolshevist, crooked, and inefficient policemen.

The order was called forth by the shooting yesterday morning of Patrolman Edward J. McNamara. Policemen William J. Heffernan, Walter Moyer, and Michael E. Winn, implicated in the affair, were suspended yesterday by the chief. McNamara is at Mercy hospital in a precarious condition.

Letter of Chief.

The chief's letter to his first assistant follows:

"I herewith transmit to you reports and statements which I have received in connection with the shooting of Officer Edward J. McNamara of the Thirty-fifth precinct for your investigation, reports, and recommendations. I have today suspended the men involved in this case.

"The police department has no place for those who resort to such methods. Too many policemen give their lives in battle, with bandits—we cannot condone or compromise with an instance of one member of this department killing or trying to kill a fellow officer in a private quarrel.

Holds Espionage Needed.

"I think the circumstances surrounding this shooting are of as much importance as the shooting itself. I purposely heretofore have refrained from anything approaching a system of espionage in the department. However, the shooting of McNamara and the surrounding circumstances force me to the decision that such action is necessary—first, to protect the citizens of Chicago, to whom the department owes allegiance, and, secondly, to encourage and fortify those members of the department who give to their duty their best efforts at the daily risk of their lives.

Told to Hire Agents.

"You are hereby directed to employ such investigators as in your judgment are necessary and to assign them as you see fit, with instructions to report any dereliction of duty on the part of the members of this department, such as failure to police posts, loitering on duty, frequenting saloons or public places, intoxication, inattention to duty, etc.

"These reports are to be forwarded to me in such form that they may be formulated into charges to be filed before the civil service commission, and the investigators are to be of such character that they may appear before the civil service commission to testify in support of findings in their reports. I would like to have you give this your immediate attention and take personal charge of it."

TRIBUNE SUES TO HALT GRAB OF 2 EXPERTS

The Tribune company started suit yesterday in the Superior court to unravel the experting business of Frank H. Meese and Austin J. Lynch, the city's two building specialists on six street improvements. The bill alleges there is a conspiracy to cheat and defraud the city.

It declares not only that the service received was worth only one-twentieth of the amount paid for it, but also that Meese and Lynch were paid the larger part of $1,000,000 for last year's work from an appropriation which was null and void for the purpose of paying them.

Five Main Objects.

The bill seeks five main objects—namely:

1. Reimbursement of more than $1,000,000 paid these experts for last year's services.
2. Reimbursement in full of all sums substantially paid them.
3. The prevention of the payment of any more money to them.
4. The names of the conspirators and their method of operation.
5. The names of persons to whom Meese and Lynch are alleged to have paid money.

The defendants of the suit are: William Hale Thompson, mayor of Chicago; George F. Harding, city controller; Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements; Meese and Lynch. The total involved in the suit, paid and unpaid, is $2,876,063, according to an official estimate made by Mr. Faherty.

Sues as a Taxpayer.

The action was taken by The Tribune company as a taxpayer in Chicago since 1861. Its sole purpose is to serve taxpayers. When the money is recovered it will be paid into the city treasury for the benefit of the people. Not one dollar will accrue to The Tribune, although it will bear all of the expense—which will be a large one of bringing the suit to a successful end.

An appeal to the courts was the only course open. The Tribune company is certain the money was illegally paid out. The courts alone can compel complete restitution and prevent further enormous payments to Meese and Lynch.

Among the prayers of the bill is one request "that an accounting may be had of any and all sums which have heretofore been paid out by the city or received by the said Frank H. Meese or said Austin J. Lynch from the said city, and that upon the taking of said account, the said William Hale Thompson, George F. Harding, Michael J. Faherty, Frank H. Meese, and Austin J. Lynch may be ordered and decreed by this honorable court, to pay back to the city all such sums so paid out or received by the said Frank H. Meese or said Austin J. Lynch from the said city, and that upon the taking of said account, the said William Hale Thompson, George F. Harding, Michael J. Faherty, Frank H. Meese, and Austin J. Lynch may be ordered and decreed by this honorable court forthwith to repay unto said city the said sums of $460,699.49 and $574,351.46 and any and all other sums and considerations heretofore paid or which may hereafter be paid unto said Frank H. Meese and unto said Austin J. Lynch as building experts by said city."

The injunction asked has as one object the "permanently and perpetually restraining and enjoining the said Frank H. Meese and the said Austin J. Lynch, both and each of them, from rendering any bills to said city for services claimed to have been performed by them or either of them as building experts for said city."

It also asks that Michael J. Faherty be restrained "from the K-ing or said city by said Frank H. Meese or by said Austin J. Lynch, or either of them or both of them," and "from requesting said city or any officers thereof to pay unto said Meese and Lynch any consideration or fees for services rendered or to be rendered to the city as building experts."

Seeks to Enjoin Mayor.

A third application is for a writ of injunction "permanently and perpetually enjoining and restraining the said William Hale Thompson and George F. Harding, both and each of them, from authorizing the payment unto said Frank H. Meese or unto said Austin J. Lynch of any moneys or other consideration of said city, and from signing, issuing, drawing,

SEIZE $390,000 THEFT SUSPECT; HUNT COSMANO
Julius Levy, 28 years old, of 6030 South Michigan avenue, who is said to have been identified as the driver of the automobile used in the $390,000 Dearborn station mail robbery, was arrested at Madison and State streets last night. Search is also being made for Vincenzo Cosmano, indicted with Timothy "Big Tim" Murphy in connection with the Pullman mail robbery. Cosmano is said to have participated in the robbery.

EVERYBODY STANDS PAT.
But the Purcell can take possession because Louis Greco, his wife, and eight children refuse to move.

WOBBLES WILL TRAVEL IN STYLE TO PENITENTIARY
William D. Haywood, I. W. W. leader, and fifty other members of his organization, under sentence to Leavenworth penitentiary for obstruction of the wartime draft act, once went to the high walled federal bastille in a special train under heavy guard and plastered with manacles.

HOUSEWIVES' UNION MAKES ANGRY PROTEST
The headquarters of the petitioning association are declared in the petition to be "by the cook stove and the cradle with the wash tub nearby."

FOR A MISSING LINK, CRY TENANTS IN CHAIN OF WOE
Not the missing link, but the present link—and so many of them—gives Judge John A. Swanson pause as he tries rent eviction cases. For instance: The People's House association bought the property at 4015 North Drake avenue, a nice building, with room for a school for many children.

HOUSEWIVES' UNION MAKES ANGRY PROTEST
The headquarters of the petitioning association are declared any warrants on said city for payment into said Frank H. Meese or said Austin J. Lynch as remuneration or fees for the services of the two experts.

Another paragraph is directed against the city as a corporation, and each and all of its officers, to prevent them from "paying out directly or indirectly by credits, cash or any other consideration, any of the funds of the city" to Meese or Lynch for services as building experts.

Demands Conspirators' Names.
A summons is asked for each of the defendants and the bill petitions the court to order them "To state the names and addresses of the persons and each of them who conspired and confederated with said defendants for the objects and purposes set forth in paragraph 6 of this bill of complaint."

The most sensational purpose named in paragraph 6 is the "obtaining from said city of large sums of money to be distributed among persons composing a political machine."

The court is also asked to order the defendants to give the names and addresses of persons to whom $490,399.49 and $574,381.46, "or any part or parts thereof were paid by said Meese and Lynch or distributed," and the dates of said payments or distributions.

Mr. Faherty announced recently that he has made a five year contract with Meese and Lynch, and the petition asks that the exact terms and provisions of that contract be brought into court for inspection.

History of Expert Employment.
In support of its prayer the bill reviews the history of the employment of Meese and Lynch. On Nov. 4, 1919, the voters approved of bond issues totaling $28,000,000 for the widening, extension, or other improvement of Michigan boulevard, Western, Ashland, and Ogden avenues, and Robey, South Water, and Randolph streets. On Feb. 5, 1920, the city council passed an ordinance to employ Meese and Lynch at 2 per cent of the value of the buildings appraised if they made detailed valuations and submitted drawings of the buildings.

Under that order it has been reckoned by President Faherty of the board of local improvements, who technically engaged the experts, that they will earn and collect $2,878,063, of which City Controller John J. McLaughlin officially said that the two specialists had been paid $1,004,000 before Jan. 30 of this year. The sums of $490,399.49 and $574,381.46 referred to in this bill are alleged to be the total of the bills submitted by the two experts for work last year.

Value of Experts' Services.
Regarding the value of the services of Meese and Lynch paragraph 9 of the bill says:

"Your orator (The Tribune company) further represents that the basis for paying for the service of said Austin J. Lynch and Frank H. Meese as building experts on the percentage basis as provided in said order of Feb. 5 and in the annual appropriation bill of 1920 was and is manifestly and grossly unfair, and provided payments to said Frank H. Meese and Austin J. Lynch as building experts which were and would be at least twenty times greater than the fair and reasonable value of the services of said Meese and Lynch as building experts."

"That any reputable appraiser or appraisal concern would have contracted to perform the same services for said city at one-twentieth of the compensation provided for in said order of Feb. 5, 1920."

Brands System Improvident.
"That the payment of building experts on a percentage of the value of the buildings appraised was and is manifestly improvident, inexpedient, and prompts such experts to place a high valuation upon such buildings in order that the compensation may be greater."

"That the persons approved in said order of Feb. 5, 1920, as building experts—viz.: said Frank H. Meese and Austin J. Lynch—were not then nor are they now building experts qualified to do the work or perform the services required of them in connection with said improvements, but, on the contrary, they and each of them are and always have been incompetent and unqualified to do such work."

"That the services of said Frank H. Meese and said Austin J. Lynch are not and never have been worth more than a small sum—to wit: $15 each per day."

Taken Up Vote by Mayor.
Paragraph 10 is devoted to Mayor Thompson. It says that on June 29

PICTURE ANSWERS CHARGES

Mrs. Dora Zorge of 731 North Dearborn street, shown in the above picture, was arrested yesterday, accused of hanging her daughter, Vivian, also shown in the picture, by a rope around her neck to a nail driven in the wall. She and her daughter denied the charges. Mrs. Zorge saying she had only threatened the child with the punishment she was accused of inflicting upon her. The child showed bruises on her neck, but said she had no complaint to make of the mother.

last the city council duly passed an ordinance and another ordinance on Aug. 26 which "totally rescinded and repealed" the order of Feb. 5, 1920, and a section of the appropriation ordinance authorizing the employment of these two experts. It is further represented "that thereafter on Nov. 10, 1920, at a regular meeting of the said city council next following the passage of the two ordinances, said William Hale Thompson did veto said ordinance of June 23, 1920, and said ordinance of Aug. 26, 1920, and did re-irradiate ordinances to the city council without his approval; that by reason of said veto the said defendants were enabled to carry out the object of said conspiracy and federation and to pay unto said Frank H. Meese and Austin J. Lynch from the funds of the city the enormous sums hereinbefore mentioned."

Bills "Unlawfully Presented."
The next paragraph says that Meese unlawfully and wrongfully presented to the city through Faherty bills totaling $490,399.49 and that Lynch presented bills for $574,381.46, and then goes on:

"That in conformity with said bills so unlawfully and wrongfully rendered as aforesaid by said Meese and Lynch unto said city, the warrants of said city were unlawfully and wrongfully signed by said William Hale Thompson and by said George F. Harding and issued unto said Frank H. Meese upon the dates and in the amounts set opposite such dates as follows." Then follows the list totaling $490,399.49. The same charge is made with reference to the Lynch bills.

At another spot the bill alleges that the appropriations from which most of the money was obtained "are null, void, and of no effect and direct contravention of the statutes of said state relating to appropriations of cities."

R. E. Board Fails to Act.
President Smith's council of the Chicago Real Estate board—composed of former presidents—failed to take any action yesterday afternoon on the question of fees paid to experts by the city. Last week Mr. Smith announced that the meeting was called for consideration of that subject alone and that the council would "decide what to do and how to do it."

What stopped that program was not disclosed. The meeting was executive and President Smith said after it had adjourned that "more information would be collected before action is taken." Others referred inquiries to the president. One man present, however, intimated the subject will not be brought up again. About ten were present.

HARDING WORKS TO MAKE NATION MIGHTY IN AIR

Wants Congress to Pass Laws of Flight.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

Washington, D. C., April 19.—[Special.]—President Harding has started out to make America equal to other nations in the navigation of the air.

In support of the recommendations in his message last week the executive today transmitted to congress a special report of the national advisory committee for aeronautics, made at his request, for a formulation of a national aviation policy.

Galvanized into new life, the advisory committee produced within a week a survey of the situation containing the following recommendations:

1. Aviation is inseparable from the national defense. It is necessary to the success of the army and the navy. Each should have complete control of the character and operations of its own air service.

2. Aeronautics is a comparatively new science, capable of such tremendous and rapid development that it is of vital importance, in time of peace, to make the greatest possible progress in the science itself. Everything should be done to stimulate invention and to encourage the practical use of aircraft of all kinds.

3. It is considered impracticable in time of peace to maintain a large armed air force, but it is imperative that we maintain a sufficient nucleus of available personnel, including organized reserves, and of adequate equipment of the most modern type as a foundation upon which to build at the outbreak of war.

4. It is essential that commercial aviation be fostered and encouraged in harmony with the military and naval aviation policies and programs to annul the Amory concession.

5. The air mail service is an important initial step in the development of civil and commercial aviation. It must be maintained and extended as rapidly as possible, not only to carry the mails but to become a potential war reserve.

6. It is a pressing duty of the federal government to regulate air navigation; otherwise independent and conflicting legislation by the various states will be enacted and hamper development of the art. For this purpose a bureau of aeronautics should be established in the department of commerce.

7. Approved policies with respect to the encouragement and development of commercial aviation should be carried out by the department of commerce.

A Co-ordinate Combatant.
The army air service should be continued as a co-ordinate combatant branch of the army. Its existing organization should be used in cooperation with the navy, postoffice, and other governmental agencies in the prompt establishment of national continental airways and in cooperation with the states and municipalities in the establishment of local airfields, landing fields, and other necessary facilities.

8. The naval air service and the control of naval activities in aeronautics should be centralized in a bureau of

VIRGINIA BELLE FOILS "FIXERS"; TRICKS SLEUTHS

Says Police Did't Stop
Her Dancing, Either.

Virginia Belle says she is not closing her academy for "recreational and instructive dancing" at 669 North Michigan avenue because Police Captain Morgan Collins told her to. She is closing up because she needs a rest and anyway "they" didn't get the $2,000 they wanted.

In the midst of her once gorgeous academy, surrounded by dismantled canelabra, splendid portieres, and draperies, neatly folded and ready for packing, French mirrors and Queen Anne furniture, Miss Belle yesterday told who "they" were, mentioning one name rather prominent in politics and two others. And she also told how "they" outraged her artistic senses by wanting to dance and then began "shaming" and how they wanted her to get them some "dirty blondes."

Cops Can't Disguise Themselves.

Incidentally, too, she mentions "impossible policemen" in dress suits who were readily detected by their "thick soled shoes" and tapped telephone wires and detectives by the dozen peering into windows and—

"It was on March 3, several weeks after I had decided to close the academy," said Miss Belle, "that they [the police] came to the house. They wanted to fix everything. There had been rumors that I was being investigated, but the police didn't find anything. They sent impossible policemen in dress suits and flat feet here trying to get in for lessons, but my clientele doesn't wear dress suits."

"Anyway he [the policeman] told me he was the man who called up Capt. Collins to have me come to his office and tell me to move, but that he could fix it up. 'Don't worry,' he said, 'we can fix that all up. But it can't be done for nothing.'"

"Close Friend of Judge"—

"And then one of the men with him told me they could have anything they wanted from Judge —, as he roomed with a close friend of the judge, and could fix things, and if anything came up he could get it thrown out of court."

"They were very hesitating about naming any sum," Miss Belle continued, "and after questioning my husband and myself about our finances said they wanted $2,000. 'You see,' one of the men said, 'you want $500, and you can't be cheap with big men.' [The politician] rarely gets less than $2,000 for a job like this, but we'll give him $1,000 and spread the other $500 around where it will do the most good."

But she doesn't "Come Across."

"But I didn't pay them anything and kept right on dancing, as my husband told me to. Three weeks later, after they had bothered me day after day on the phone, the third man came to see me. 'I see you are still running,' he said, 'and I just dropped in to see if some one was double crossing you. You know, you can't open without paying, so I just dropped in to see who you had been paying and who was holding out on us.'"

And then Miss Belle told of the tapped telephone wire and how the police got the "evidence" which they claim resulted in the order to move. Apparently Miss Belle knew the wire was tapped and the police after listening on a conversation about a "swell party," drove up at 1 o'clock in the morning in the patrol wagon and hung around in the cold for two hours and a half, waiting for the "party" that didn't come off.

Clientele Offers Aid.

The dancing instructor's social clientele has offered to come to her aid. The millions of this and that man, she says, are back of her, but she will not accept their help. She has furnished them with recreation, but will not go to them with her troubles.

So Miss Belle is disposing of the gorgeous furnishings of her academy. For two weeks she has been selling antique furniture, her lamps and her bric-a-brac and on May 1, the academy will be no more. But it wasn't the police who made her close up. No, sir. And "they" didn't get the $2,000 they wanted.

"SECRET SERVICE JOB" COSTLY, BUT HOW HE DID RIDE!

George W. Jennings dropped in to see Capt. Thomas Porter of the secret service yesterday to have his expense account approved. He presented a bunch of taxicab receipts for not more than four or five hundred dollars and some other items of expense.

The captain was a bit perturbed, for he didn't know Jennings. "If you're a secret service man," he said, "it's a secret I'm not in on."

Jennings then explained a handsome stranger had taken him from his baggage-smashing job and for $200, his watch, and a diamond ring had made him a secret service man and told him always to use taxis.

SAYS WE LEAD WORLD IN H. C. L. FOR DIPLOMATS

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

SYDNEY, April 19.—Sigurd T. Goes, the Swedish consul general at Chicago and formerly stationed at Sydney, who has just returned for a visit, says that Chicago is "especially difficult for foreign officials," who are forced to live in the Lake Shore drive district because of their position.

"It is impossible to keep up a respectable appearance on less than $15,000 a year," he added.

Virginia Belle, proprietor of the "academy," who tells story of the demand for the $2,000.

HERRMANN CALLS REPORT HE'LL WED AS "PREMATURE"

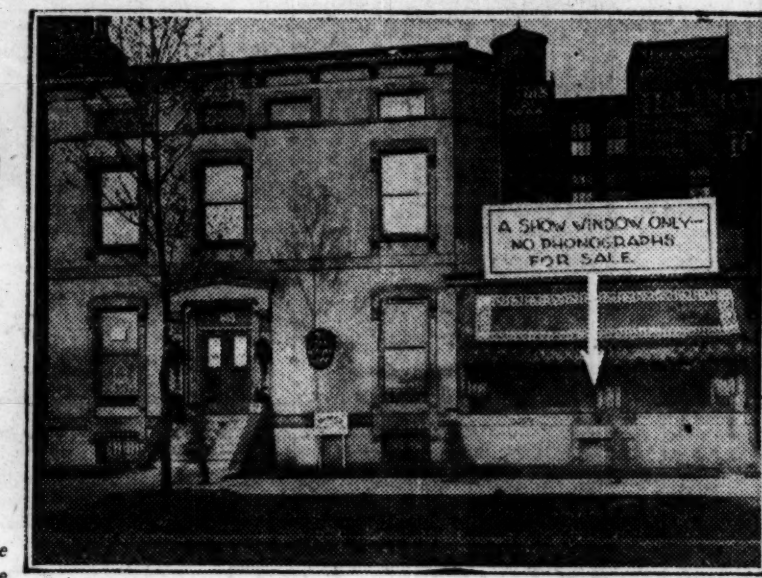

Declaring that the report of his engagement was the result of a joking comment recently made by a friend, August "Garry" Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati National league team, yesterday denied he was scheduled to marry Mrs. Elizabeth Dougherty, 729 Irving Park boulevard, the widow of a former Philadelphia contractor.

"Such an announcement was premature, to say the least," remarked Mr. Herrmann. Mrs. Dougherty could not be located, but her sister, Mrs. W. J. Gregory, expressed surprise at the denial.

"Maybe he did say it was premature," she said, "but what of it? He couldn't keep their engagement a secret forever, could he?"

MAIL GUARD JOB OPEN FOR 1,500 EX-SERVICE MEN

The Chicago postoffice has jobs for 1,500 ex-service men. Postmaster William B. Carille announced last night in answer to several hundred queries, especially regarding work as mail guards.

Following the promulgation of an order from Washington calling for the immediate arming of more than 2,000 mail clerks, truck drivers, and delivery men to protect the mails against robber raids, the federal authorities have found themselves confronted with a dearth of men.

"Beginning Monday, the postoffice will hold civil service examinations," Assistant Postmaster John T. McGrath explained, "to fill the 1,500 existing vacancies. Ex-service men can obtain jobs by passing the examinations, which are not rigid and do not require more than a common school education."

Mexicans Find Lost U. S. Flyer Prey of Wolves

Mexico City, April 19.—A body believed to be that of a lost American aviator has been found near Vega de Los Ladrones, Coahuila, within ten miles of the international boundary. This information was transmitted today to the war office by Gen. Joaquin Amaro.

The body was found by a ranchman near a wrecked airplane flying the American flag and was mangled beyond identification by birds and wolves.

DE VOY WINS IN FIGHT FOR POLICE PENSION TRUSTEE

When off duty he dons his traffic cop's uniform and resumes charge of the police pension fund. Figures which were announced yesterday showed that De Voy had been re-elected trustee of the fund in the Monday balloting. He received 2,001 votes. Patrolman Michael O'Connor of Sheffield avenue station ran second and Patrolman Edward Rubach of the traffic division was third.

MRS. FIELD ILL; DROPS ROLE IN SOCIETY PLAY

Mrs. Marshall Field III will not appear in the "gold coast" cast of society women who will present three plays at Mandel hall next Friday evening for the benefit of the University of Chicago settlement, according to an announcement made yesterday by Mrs. Lyman A. Walton, who has charge of the productions. This was to have been Mrs. Field's first public appearance in Chicago amateur theatricals.

"Last Saturday Mrs. Field, who had just returned from Florida, telephoned me she was feeling ill and did not desire to appear in the plays," said Mrs. Walton. "She said that she did not feel up to the work of learning the part and asked to be excused." Mrs. Field's illness is not serious.

Mrs. John Alden Carpenter will appear as leading woman in the play the part that was to have been Mrs. Field's, according to Mrs. Walton.

Diamonds Will Remain High, Jewelers Declare

While the retail jewelry business thrives, the wholesale business is declining. Diamonds will not fall in price.

So said members of the Central States Hallmark club of the United Jewelers, Inc., at a meeting last night in the Hotel Sherman. L. Josephson of Moline, Ill., vice president of the organization, was toastmaster.

'PEEPING SCENE' FAKED, STOKES' WIFE DECLARES

Couldn't See What They Say They Saw, She Says.

New York, April 19.—[Special.]—Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes opened fire today on the divorce suit of her aged and rich husband, W. E. D. Stokes, and at the outset took to pieces the "peeping scene" stories involving one of many co-respondents.

At the same time, Mrs. Stokes began active presentation of her charges of cruel and inhuman treatment, in an effort not only to beat Stokes' charges, but to win herself a decree from the aged man of millions.

The "peeping scene" was shattered by photographs. A professional photographer, R. A. Cowan, submitted more than half a dozen he took for Mrs. Stokes' counsel. The photos show it impossible physically for any one to see from the extension roof into the rooms formerly occupied by Edgar T. Wallace, a rich western oil and mining man.

Negro Sleuth Named.

Beginning presentation of her case, Mrs. Stokes' attorneys presented letters written by Stokes to a Negro detective in Chicago. Names and contents were not disclosed. Justice Finch is going to read them first.

In one of these letters, according to Mr. Stokes' own lawyer, the millionaire asked the Negro sleuth to verify his allegations that his wife had been the mother of several children of whom Stokes was not the father.

Stokes' Counsel Objects.

Herbert Smyth of counsel for Mr. Stokes, made a vigorous protest against the admission of the letters in evidence.

Attorney Littleton, representing Mrs. Stokes, declined to state what letters he had included in the batch. He added that the letters "were written by Mr. Stokes and put into the hands of a Negro in Chicago to be circulated to the humiliation of Mrs. Stokes."

How the letters got into the hands of Mrs. Stokes was not disclosed.

ALL DAY CHASE AFTER GERMANS PROVES FUTILE

Mist Hides Enemy from Admiral Beatty.

In yesterday's account of the chase after the German fleet, following the attack on Scarborough and Hartlepool, Lieut. Yon explained the puzzling position of the British and German ships, which was learned long after the enemy escaped. He likened the chase to two men in a dark room, one trying to catch the other, who is doing his best to keep from being caught.

BY LIEUT. BEATTY, YON.
(Copyright, 1921, in U. S. by The Chicago Tribune.)

It was a day of great excitement and nervous tension (which would have been greater had we known the truth) and was followed by a great reaction of disappointment. We continued our eastward chase until dusk, or nearly four o'clock. I shall not easily forget those four hours of rush through the mist and storm on that gray December day; the strange, deserted aspect of the ship cleared for action, and all its domestic life suspended.

I went round the ship in the course of the afternoon; the men were busy with the eternal drill of guns and ranges in their turrets and at their gunstations. Down in the fore transmitting station, that telephone exchange where the mathematics of fire control are worked out by men and machines, I found the officer in charge of it and his assistants anxiously waiting for news of the world above decks, skeptical, yet very hopeful that things might still happen.

Parts of the ship generally swarming with life were blank and deserted; and clusters of men were grouped

WINS DIVORCE

Lady Clara Cholmondeley and Her Daughter.

LONDON, April 19.—Lady Clara Cholmondeley today was granted a decree of divorce from Lord George Cholmondeley, second son of the fourth marquis of Cholmondeley, on the grounds of desertion and cruelty.

Lady Cholmondeley, then Clara Taylor of Washington, made her first appearance in London in the chorus of a musical comedy and soon afterward met John Alexander Stirling, laird of Kippendavie, whom she married secretly in 1904. After a sensational court hearing, Mr. Stirling divorced her in 1909, naming Lord Northland.

Returning to the stage, Mrs. Stirling met Lord George Cholmondeley and they were married in March, 1911.

about fire parties and such like—in unaccustomed places.

The wardrobe flat was dark and deserted, as were all our cabins; and on this as on other days (the galleys being out of action when the ship was at battle stations) our servants took care of us by bringing up trays of strange meats and improvised snacks on which we subsisted through the day.

But after 3 o'clock we knew the chase to be useless and were recalled to the northward by Sir George Warrender. At this time, or an hour later, the German battle cruisers must have been near us to the southward, and an encounter would at that hour have astonished us both. The day was a complete failure—in one sense, that is, for had it had the kind of success for which we were striving, possibly very few of us would have been here to tell the tale.

But the whole operation, even as viewed in the light of our partial and imperfect knowledge on that evening, was full of lessons. The uselessness of sending destroyers out without a leader was fully demonstrated. These gallant craft, which can and do render such invaluable service to a force of heavy ships, must always have a mother with them—a leader for signaling and protection.

Defective Dispositions.

We did not then know, of course, of the conditions in the Pentland firth that had put the light cruisers out of action and made the sailing of the flotillas from Scapa impossible. This, however, was one of the lesser of the unsatisfactory features of the day.

To the admiral, the meager and confusing information furnished caused very real anxiety. I have never known him to take a useless risk; and no strategist likes to risk his squadron in thick weather, in waters which he knows to be infested by the enemy, without either being furnished with information, or the means of scouting and obtaining it for himself.

The admiral furnished not one scrap of information throughout the day; the admiralty information was good, but consistently too late to be effectively acted upon. The whole operation afforded a striking example of the consequences of a complete lack of a system of fleet intelligence, as distinct from the always excellent admiralty intelligence—which was, however, only doled out to us in very small doses, and often too late to be of use.

And the events of this day finally demonstrated the folly of sending out this as on other days (the galleys being out of action when the ship was at battle stations) our servants took care of us by bringing up trays of strange meats and improvised snacks on which we subsisted through the day.

GOMPERS CALLS GARY AUTOCRAT ON LABOR STAND

Toronto, April 18.—Samuel Gompers, president, American Federation of Labor, bitterly attacked Elbert H. Gary, chairman, United States Steel corporation, for his attitude toward union labor in an address before the Empire club here today.

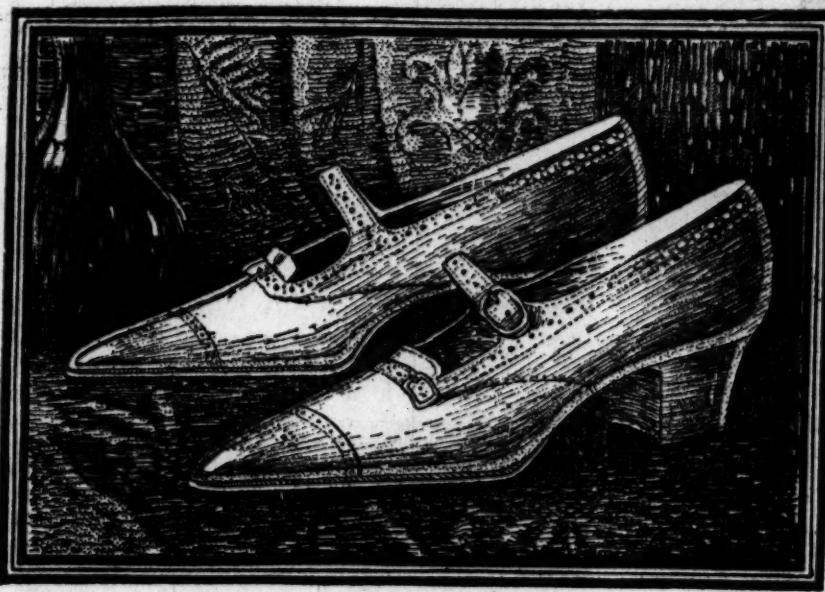

"The offices of the federation are in Washington," Mr. Gompers said. "I challenge Mr. Gary for the selection of a committee, half to be appointed by him and half by myself, to investigate both the steel corporation and the federation."

Referring to Mr. Gary's statement that reasonable control through government agencies would prove a solution to labor union problems, Mr. Gompers charged the steel magnate did not know his own men and that he relied on the reports of his detectives.

"This powerful spokesman of autocratic industry declares labor unions must be regulated or controlled so that industry and government may not be destroyed," he said. "I ask you what chance there would be for an individual or a foreigner to redress a grievance were he left to his own resources?"

Mrs. Teddy Jr. Says She's Not Assembly Candidate

New York, April 19.—(Special.)—"There's nothing in it at all," said Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., dismissing reports that she might follow her husband's footsteps to Albany as member of the assembly from the Second district. She added that she would go to Washington to live as soon as Mr. Roosevelt returns from the south, where he went to inspect the Atlantic fleet.

JUNIOR LEAGUE'S GAY "CHAIRITIES" FILL EVERY CHAIR

Vamps, Sea Lions, Dance
Delight Society.

BY INDIA MOFFETT.

New in all its history has the Junior League presented such an interesting and finished entertainment as it did last night. "Chairities" was the name of the spirited benefit revue, which undertook to illustrate how chairs typify the characters of persons and nations. Miss Grace Henry, who recently directed the New York Junior League's benefit, was in charge of the performance.

High lights on the program were Miss Margaret Hambleton, whose interpretation of "Smoke" delighted the audience; Miss Dorothy Keeley and Mrs. Richard D. Stevenson (Helen Farwell), whose antics as trained sea lions caused roars of laughter; Mrs. Julius T. Benedict (Cecile Murphy), whose over-the-top dance "brought down the house," and the remarkable dancing of Miss Mary Landon Baker, who gave three ballroom dances with Alexander Vind. If Miss Hambleton ever decides to become a movie "vamp," the w. k. Miss Bara will have to look to her laurels.

Other Stars of Night.

Others who took leading roles in a pleasing manner were Mrs. Howard Linn (Lucy Blair), who danced a solo in the South Seas group; Richard Bent, whose tenor was heard in a solo in the Old English group and in a duet with Miss Lucretia Green; Mrs. Owen Barton Jones, whose graceful dancing and charming frocks contributed much to the success of the entertainment; Albert Gardner, who sang several songs which were to have been sung by Emerson McMillin III. of New York, one of the composers of the revue's music, who was detained in the east on account of illness; Miss Florence Folds, who sang beautifully; Mrs. Livingston Fairbank, who was a picturesque figure in a hoop skirt in the southern scene and who sang charmingly; Miss Mary Reed, Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Sarah Hinde, Miss Felicité Reynolds, Miss Constance Root, and Miss Louise Veltz, who did a Russian dance.

Cast Includes Scores.

Also in the cast were Miss Anita Dunn, Miss Frieda Gross, Miss Peggy Keeley, Miss Dorothy Magie, Miss Peggy Owen, Miss Mary Cooke, Miss Beatrix Thorne, Miss Dolly Walker, Miss Barbara Granger, Miss Martha Granger, Miss Frances Taft, Miss Theresa Gross, Miss Lucy Lord, Owen R. Jones, Talbot Patrick, John Gilbert, Edward Wyckoff, Hubbard Allen, William Horne, Miss Harriet Allport, Miss Katherine Cook, Miss Florence Harris, Miss Eileen Kelly, Mrs. James R. Mullen, Mrs. Knowlton Ames Jr., Miss Virginia Cooke, Botsford Young, Van Brunt, Jacob Bischof, Edward Street, Mrs. Edson Manierre, Miss Priscilla McIlvaine, Miss Rebecca Hickman, Miss Emily Bisell, Preston Boyden, Miss Eleanor Holden, Miss Annette Washburne, Miss Theresa Higginson, Miss Helen Smith, George Saunders, William M. Letts, Miss Madeline Michelson, Miss Emily Bisell, and the University Club Banjo club, led by Newton Farr.

The fashionable audience filled every seat in Orchestra hall and, following the performance, the people from the boxes and main floor mingled with the actors at a supper dance in the foyer.

Mrs. Howard Linn was one of the stars at last night's performance of "Chairities," the Junior League's annual revue at Orchestra hall. Mrs. Linn scored a hit with her solo dance as a member of the South Seas group.

Mrs. Julius T. Benedict, whose cowgirl dance fairly "brought down" the crowded house. Her lively number was regarded as one of the big successes of the evening.

And here is Miss Margaret Hambleton, whose interpretation of "Smoke" won much applause. Her friends say Miss Hambleton as a movie "vamp" would make the w. k. Miss Bara green with jealousy.

BILL TO BAR ALIEN FLOOD REPORTED FOR QUICK ACTION

House Body O. K.'s Bill with 355,000 Limit.

Washington, D. C., April 19.—The house immigration committee today submitted a favorable report on the Dillingham immigration bill which, it is calculated, would restrict the admission of aliens to 355,000 during the next year.

The bill will be taken up by the house tomorrow and probably will be passed within the next day or two with about fifty votes against it.

The committee's report shows 550,000 immigrants were admitted between July 1, 1920, and March 1, 1921, and during March about 70,000, with 28,000 departures. Total admissions for the year ending June 30, 1920, ranged from 750,000 to 1,000,000.

Among the reasons given by the committee for prompt passage of the bill were:

1. Conditions in Europe which cause a considerable portion of the population of many nations to seek domicile in this country.

2. Large unemployment in America, making it impracticable for us to accept a heavy immigration.

3. Lack of housing facilities here.

4. The presence here already of 10,000,000 or more unassimilated aliens.

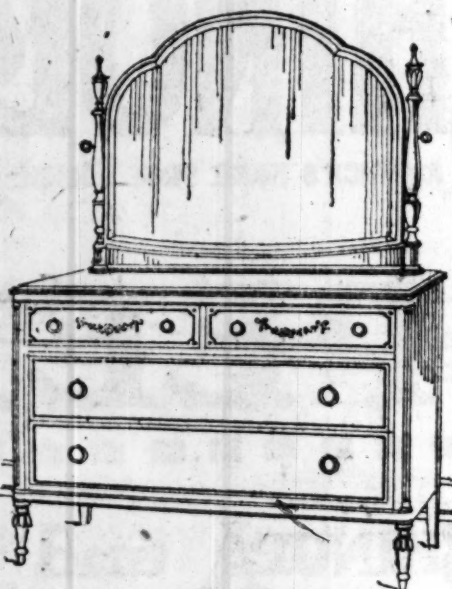

Exception to certain statements in the report of Secretary Hughes to congress was taken tonight by Representative Siegel, Republican, New York, in a statement. Mr. Siegel, Representative Maloney, Republican, Massachusetts, and Sabath, Democrat, Illinois, filed a minority report.

The statement by Mr. Siegel said:

"It is exceedingly regrettable that a report purporting to be signed by Secretary Hughes should contain the statement that 'Armenians, Jews, Persians, and Russians, all of which have been so driven hither and thither since 1914 that they cannot be regarded as desirable populations for any country,' and should have been given wide publicity."

"The letter containing this memorandum is alleged to have had his signature. Undoubtedly Secretary Hughes will promptly take steps to ascertain who is responsible for the issuance of the statement, which the entire world knows is untrue."

BANK CRASH SUIT AGAINST BILLINGS IN HIGH COURT

After sixteen years of fighting Abraham G. Becker has finally reached the Supreme court of Illinois with his demand that Cornelius K. G. Billings be held responsible for the entire amount of the failure of the Home Savings Bank of Chicago, in which Becker was a stockholder.

The bank failed in 1905 with the Chicago National bank. Both were owned by John R. Walsh. Becker charged that Billings was liable for the losses because of his alleged lack of vigilance as a director in each bank.

The amount of the loss sustained by stockholders was $2,500,000. Billings had offered to settle for $150,000. Judge Tuthill prevented the settlement.

Hammond Man Slain by Policeman; Tales Conflict

Hammond, Ind., April 19.—[Special.]—While on his way to Cedar Lake on a fishing trip, Cleo Dutton, a well known Hammond man, was shot and killed by Patrolman Charles Wright of the Hammond force. Wright said Dutton disregarded his command to halt. E. C. Pooler testified that the command to halt came almost simultaneously with the shot. Wright says he shot in the air and at the Dutton auto tires.

U. S. TO FIGHT ON FOR MONROEISM, HARDING ASSERTS

Pledges Pan-America His Devotion to Doctrine.

is on his feet his plumb is perfect. "There is one sentence in the whole of his half hour of speaking which is underscored by a dramatic lifting of his strong, even voice. That is the pronouncement that America will fight for the Monroe Doctrine. He brings up an arm to emphasize his words. A hundred cameras click.

The President Speaks.

In opening his address the President alluded to the double anniversary which the day represented, saying: "There is significance in dates, as though some days were destined for a high place in the history of human progress and an abiding place in human affections. This day is the anniversary of the battle of Lexington, when the colonies of North America made their first sacrifice in blood for independence and new standards of freedom. On this same day, a generation later, Venezuela's struggle for freedom had its immortal beginning. "I wish April 19 might have an added significance from this day on. Similarly born and dedicated to new world freedom, I would like this date to mark anew for North and South America not alone the avowal of mutual trust in the fellowship of freedom and democracy, but a new confidence and a new mutuality of purpose in achieving the things which independence and fellowship so naturally inspire."

The one divergence in President Harding's speech from what he con-

PAY TRIBUTE TO LIBERATOR OF SOUTH AMERICA

Statue of Simon Bolivar unveiled in New York City.

Simon Bolivar was born in Caracas in 1793. In 1809 he visited the United States and was won by its republican institutions. On his return to Venezuela he began a movement to free his country from Spain.

This insurrection finally drove the Spanish from Venezuela and New Granada (now Colombia) in 1822, and from Peru in 1825. He formed the republic of Bolivia in the same year.

His political enemies forced him from the presidency of Venezuela and Colombia in 1829. He died Dec. 10, 1830.

He is the all important subject of pan-American relations came when he was discussing the great success the American nations had had in settling their differences by peaceful arbitration. In the President's words was seen a hint that it was in his mind eventually to call a conference to discuss world disarmament.

"In the last century our American commonwealths have not only been able to hold themselves aloof from competitions in armament," he said, "but they have built up a system of international arbitration and adjudication which has constantly lessened the danger of armed conflict."

"There is too little realization of the progress made toward judicial and arbitral settlement of international differences by the American nations. It presents an example well worthy of earnest consideration and affords us an assurance which will justify our purpose to invite the present day civilization to cast aside the staggering burden of armament."

Monroeism Misunderstood.

Coming directly to the main subject of his address, the President then said: "The doctrine proclaimed under Monroe, which ever since has been jealously guarded as a fundamental of our own republic, maintained that these continents should not again be regarded as fields for the colonial enterprises of old world powers."

"There have been times when the meaning of Monroeism was misunderstood by some, perverted by others, and made the subject of distorting propaganda by those who saw in it an obstacle to their own ambitions."

"They have falsely charged that we sought to hold the nations of the old world at arm's length in order that we might monopolize the privilege of exploitation for ourselves."

"Others have protested that the doctrine would never be enforced if to enforce it should involve us in actual hostilities."

"The history of the generations since that doctrine was proclaimed has proved we never intended it selfishly; that we had no dream of exploitation. "On the other side, the history of the last decade certainly must have convinced all the world that we stand willing to fight, if necessary, to protect these continents, these sturdy young democracies, from oppression and tyranny."

No part of the President's address was greeted with greater applause than this reaffirmation of the Monroe Doctrine, and cries of "Bravo! bravo!" rose above the clapping of hands. "If we could consult our Washington and our Bolivar today and if they could advise us out of their wisdom and experience they would tell us to go forward in firm confidence that ours is the right course," he continued. "I know I may speak the spirit of the United States. No selfishness impels, no greed is urging, no envy incites, no hatred is actuating. The United States salutes Venezuela and the South American nations born of Gen. Bolivar's offerings on the altars of freedom and pledges its devotion to the same liberty, the same justice, the same aspirations of national independence, the same forward look, in touching elbows while we advance to greater fulfillment."

"But we must also have a thought for all mankind. The world is torn and harassed, and pan-Americanism means sympathetic and generous Americanism. The world needs the utmost of production, of restoration, of rehabilitation, of steady influence, all that we can contribute to it. Our greatest service lies in standing firmly together, making ourselves strong that we may give our strength, rich that we may contribute of our riches, and confident that we may inspire others with confidence."

"The world needs, in order that its economic balance may be redressed, peace, enterprise, industry, frugality, and commercial development.

"Herein lies for us both duty and opportunity, duty to those whom we may help, opportunity in helping others also to help ourselves. The great war has brought to us of the Americas a new conception of our place in the world, a larger appreciation of the opportunity which is ours."

CELEBRATION AT CARACAS.

CARACAS, April 19.—Venezuela today celebrated the anniversary of the final campaign of 1821, during which Simon Bolivar defeated the Spanish royalists and established the independence of this country. In commemoration of the event the statue of George Washington, which was recently transferred from the position it held for many years to a new and beautiful site in Washington park, was unveiled.

The American colony here was largely represented. Following the addresses of the day there was a parade of school children and military.

The statue of Washington now stands at the intersection of two of the most beautiful avenues of the outskirts of Caracas, in a residential section called "Paradise."

The avenues had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. One of the thoroughfares has been renamed "Washington," the name also being given to the grounds.

LOYD GEORGE DEFENDS STERN HAND IN IRELAND

Cites Lincoln's Axiom of "Divided We Fall."

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, April 19.—An important declaration, supporting the government's Irish policy, was made today by Prime Minister Lloyd George in reply to the memorial recently sent by Bishop Cheevers and nine other leaders of the British Protestant church, protesting against the divorce in Ireland.

The prime minister, answering the allegations in order, denied the existence of irregular forces which had been disciplined; that there were no "secret" reprisals, and all other charges against the crown forces. He quoted figures showing that police and soldiers were punished for breaches of discipline and appealed for public support for the "sorely tried" men who are trying to preserve order in a country given up to anarchy. He then dealt with the Sinn Fein in this manner:

"The Sinn Fein rejected home rule and demanded in its place an Irish republic for the whole of Ireland. The Sinn Fein went further. It deliberately set to work to destroy conciliation and constitutional methods because it recognized that violence was the only method by which it could realize the republic."

Amazed at Bishop's Stand.

"I do not contest the Sinn Fein's rights to its opinions and aspirations and have never done so. But what amazes me is that a body of responsible men, eminent leaders of the church, should state publicly that the Sinn Fein has some kind of justification for murdering innocent men in cold blood because its novel and extravagant political ideas have been denied."

Mr. Lloyd George then drew a parallel to a small communist party in Great Britain holding views with intense conviction, and said on the same argument it would be justified in employing murder and assassination. He then gave the details of several

THRILLS CROWD

Young Woman Climbs City Hall
Flagstaff with Pageant
Pennant and—Drops It.

LILLIAN COLLIE.
(Ford Photo.)

Persons near the city hall yesterday afternoon got a series of thrills watching Miss Lillian Collie of 14 West Chestnut street shin up the flagpole on the north end of the building. Miss Collie carried a Pageant of Progress pennant about twice as big as herself. The idea was to fasten the red and white pennant to the top of the flagstaff and "let her float in the breeze."

There was plenty of breeze, too. The flagstaff seemed to sway dizzily in it, and to bend more as the girl climbed higher. When she reached the top she looked like a speck to the neck cranes.

Then something happened. Something began falling. It looked at first as if it might be the girl, but it was only the pennant.

Some one has the pennant. Perhaps he intends to decorate his den with it. But by returning it he can get two season tickets to the exposition.

murders, and replying to the demand for a new policy, said: "If I thought there was a different policy, which would lead to a solution of our difficulties, I would not hesitate to adopt it, however different it might be to the course the government now is pursuing."

"The present state of affairs is due to the one cause only that there is still an irreconcilable difference between the two sides. I believe that in Irish republic is impossible for two reasons: "First—Because it is incompatible to the security of Great Britain and the existence of the British commonwealth."

"Second—Because, if conceded, it would mean civil war in Ireland, in which hundreds of thousands of people, not only from Great Britain but from all over the world, would have to take part."

"The government of which I am at the head will never give way on the fundamental question of secession. So long, therefore, as the Sinn Fein demands a republic and refuses to accept, loyally, membership in the British commonwealth, coupled with the fullest home rule compatible to conceding Ulster the same rights it claims for itself, the present evils will continue. I do not wish there to be any misunderstanding on that point."

FIGHT OFF ATTACK

BY JOHN LESTER.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
DUBLIN, April 19.—The police barracks at Bray and Cabinteely, near Dublin, were attacked by Sinn Feiners unsuccessfully last night.

For two hours machine guns swept the streets of Bray, a fashionable Dublin seaside resort. Many bombs exploded, arousing the entire population. The attackers desisted at midnight and later gave the garrison and the fortified courthouse at Cabinteely a hot half-hour. Today several councilors at Bray were arrested.

Dublin castle tonight reported a clash with Sinn Feiners in County Carlow. A drilling party was surprised near Ballymurray by a party of ambushers and in the fighting five of the attackers were killed, two wounded, and six captured.

RAID AMERICAN'S HOME.

CHURCH HILL, County Donegal, April 19.—Glenveagh castle, the beautiful residence of Mrs. Cornelia Adair, daughter of Gen. James S. Wadsworth of New York, hero of the American civil war battle of the Wilderness, in which he lost his life, was invaded at 3 o'clock this morning by a band of raiders, who, before decamping with a quantity of loot, forced the occupants, at the point of pistols, to serve the invaders with a sumptuous meal.

President Chips In $50 to Buy Mme. Curie Radium

New York, April 19.—President and Mrs. Harding have contributed $50 toward the $100,000 fund sought by American women to purchase a gram of radium for Mme. Marie Curie, which is to be presented her by the President at the White House May 20. Receipt of the Hardings' check was announced here today.

LIQUOR RUSHED INTO ONTARIO TO BEAT "DRY" LID

Detroit, Mich., April 19.—[Special.]—Placing the majority vote for bone-dry prohibition in Ontario Monday at 200,000, A. S. Grant, secretary of the Ontario referendum committee, today announced immediate steps would be taken toward procuring measures against the manufacture of intoxicating liquors in the entire dominion.

Faced with an eternity of bone-dry prohibition, residents of Windsor began to act.

"Enough for a lifetime," is the slogan as orders for liquor by the car load are dispatched to Montreal.

In the month or two that will elapse before proclamation by the dominion government puts the new provincial law into effect, trainloads of liquor are expected to be rushed to cram the private cellars in the border cities.

YOUTH SHOT IN FIGHT OVER NEW DETECTIVE AUTO

Detectives were touring the northwest side early this morning in the new $5,000 bureau car. They left the car standing at Chicago and Avers avenues for a few minutes. When they returned a group of young men were surrounding it. The detectives suspected them of intent to steal the car. The youths fled in another auto and the detectives pursued. A battle followed. The youths escaped.

Later Dr. J. L. Fleming of 812 North Hamilton avenue phoned to the police that a youth shot through the lungs had come to him for treatment. The police suspect the wounded man of being one of the participants in the affray, but refused to tell his name.

She added that Caruso had asked her to purchase a villa in the suburbs of Naples, where he wishes to bring his family together during his convalescence. Until the villa is ready Caruso will stay at a hotel in Naples.

Roads Hire 87,457 Women; 1,363 Working in the Shops

Washington, D. C., April 19.—Women employed by the railroads in 1920 numbered 87,457, or 151 less than in 1919, and nearly 10,000 more than in 1918, says a report issued today by the Interstate commerce commission. Most of them were in clerical and semi-clerical positions, but 1,363 were doing shop work last year. The commission says it is "interesting to note that in 1919, after the return to civil life of the majority of men who had been in the military service, the average number of women in railway service was greater than before."

BRITAIN, FRANCE, TO DISCUSS NEW COERCION STEPS

Premiers Meet at Hythe
Next Week End.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, April 19.—A meeting between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier Briand of France to discuss fresh measures to be taken to force Germany has been arranged for the next week-end at Sir Philip Sassoon's country place, Lympne, near Hythe. Count Sforza, the Italian foreign minister, and representatives of Belgium will also attend. Marshal Foch will be present in an advisory capacity.

Leading British officials said today that the British government has been unfavorably impressed by the action of the Germans in trying to secure mediation in the United States, Belgium and Czechoslovakia, instead of making a frank proposal direct to the chief allies.

ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY

PARIS, April 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—The allied reparations commission announced today that it had given Germany until April 23 to transfer the gold holdings of the Reichsbank, the German imperial bank, to the Coblenz and Cologne branches of the bank. Germany refuses to comply with the ultimatum the commission, it states, will require the immediate delivery of the gold to the commission itself.

NAVAL ACCIDENT MARS JOURNEY OF JAP PRINCE

TOKIO, April 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—A boiler tube exploded on board the Japanese battleship Katori, on which Crown Prince Hirohito was traveling to Europe, while the war vessel was between Colombo and Suez, says an official statement issued by the navy department today. Two sailors were killed and two wounded, but the crown prince arrived safely in Suez on Friday last, the statement adds.

A similar explosion occurred on board the battleship Kashima, which was escorting the Katori, killing three sailors and wounding one. Repairs to the warships were effected, however, and they proceeded for Suez.

BRITISH OWNERS SEND TO MINERS FOR PEACE TALK

But Labor Expects Long Strike.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright: 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, April 19.—The negotiating committee of the mine owners' association met today in London and sent a subcommittee to confer with Secretary Bridgman of the miners' federation. After a conference extending two hours, Evan Williams, president of the owners' association, said details of a new offer to the miners were discussed, but he would not disclose the nature of the offer until it had been laid before the miners at a joint meeting which he hoped would be held this week.

Reports from the coal fields show that in a majority of the districts the miners are voting in favor of standing upon their demand for a national pool of profits. Some of the most conservative leaders now are of the opinion that the strike will be a long one.

Says Peace Is Far Off.
Vernon Hartshorn, chief spokesman of the miners in the house of commons, said today:

"We are going to have a severe fight. The struggle, so far as I can see, is going to go on many weeks yet." In these circumstances, the government is hoarding jealously its reserve stocks of coal, but this policy is causing much discontent among the people who have to stand in line at the coal controller's office waiting for a permit to allow them to buy a quarter or a half hundredweight.

Reserve Is Large.

Merchants say the reserve is large, but the government insists on reducing domestic consumption to the lowest possible volume.

If the strike continues long the outlook for British industry, which already is hard hit by international conditions, will be black. Shipping, the basic industry, is in the worst possible condition.

Board of trade reports on exports show that 900 British ships with total tonnage of over 2,000,000 tons, are laid up. Reports from the potteries show that many factories are closed or are preparing to close.

FIND BODY OF JESSIE MACKAYE IN EAST RIVER

New York, April 19.—[Special.]—Fears of Benton Mackaye that his wife, Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs Mackaye, would carry out her suicide threats, were confirmed today with the finding of her body in East river off Broadway, Astoria, L. I.

Mr. Mackaye reported to the police yesterday that his wife, prominent in Chicago and known nationally for her efforts in behalf of suffrage, fled while they were at the Grand Central terminal. When she disappeared she cried to him that she intended to commit suicide.

Mrs. Mackaye's body had been in the water about two hours when recovered late yesterday. At first the body was thought to be that of Mrs. Annette Rankin, the rich widow who disappeared about three weeks ago.

During the campaign for suffrage Mrs. Mackaye had urged girls to refuse to marry and married women to refuse to be mothers until women could vote.

TRACTION BILLS ARE DUE TODAY AT SPRINGFIELD

But Rent Projects Lag as Clamor Dies.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., April 19.—(Special.)—The traction bills are due today at Springfield. The conference of administration chiefs with legislative leaders held in Chicago last night are responsible for the sudden activity. The traction bills and the public utilities changes to be demanded by the Small, it is understood, will be ready for committee consideration tomorrow. Chairman Brinkman of the public utilities committee will convene his committee probably tomorrow to consider and report out the traction bills. The emergency bills having to do with the Chicago rent situation are held up in the house waiting for somebody to push them along. Since they got out of the senate after all of the big noise two weeks ago nothing practical has been accomplished in their behalf.

They require a two-thirds vote to get on the books in time to be of any service to the tenants whose leases will be expiring May 1. It seems to be doubtful that the bills can be put out of committee and through the house during the next two weeks.

The rent commission bill, in the senate on second reading, will be amended this week to exclude cities of 25,000 or less.

BANK OF KINDNESS

Draw a Check on It for the Unfortunate.

BY REV. G. A. MAC W. RTER.
"Not one-half—no, not even one-tenth—has been told of the danger and hardships of life in Armenia," said Lady Ann Agapetian, who came from New York to address a meeting of the trades division chairman of the near east relief fund yesterday at Hotel La Salle. Lady Ann is the wife of an Armenian general who has a Persian title equivalent to the European title of count. The general and his wife were living in New York when the war began, and they closed their house and went overseas. Lady Ann joined the Imperial Russian Red Cross, and her husband volunteered for service with the Armenian army. Both have been cited and decorated for bravery. Now Lady Ann comes to tell Armenia's sad story—her present tragedy.

"If the women of America could see the conditions in that unfortunate part of the world they would return to simplicity in dress and living, in order that they might contribute their share toward the alleviation of the sufferings of their sisters abroad."

Lady Ann implored America's aid, saying: "The Garden of Eden is being made a slaughter house for Christians, and Armenia's fate rests with America."

The first large contribution for the near east relief fund was announced, a gift of $5,000 from Cyrus H. McCormick.

SOUND LAST CALL TO GET ON SITTING JUDGES' TICKET

Backers Urge Hesitating Jurists to Decide.

BY PARKE BROWN.

The last call for the "sitting judges' ticket" for the June election was sounded yesterday.

It was announced that nine of the present Republican judges of the Circuit court have elected to run on the ticket backed by a coalition of Brundage-Densen Republicans with the Democratic county organization effected by the Chicago Bar association to protect the sitting judges from being ground up by the Lundin-Thompson machine.

Two or Three Hesitate.

But two or three other Republicans not under obligations to the machine, it was said, are hesitating. They are said to have been influenced by the city hall's efforts to belittle the coalition movement. It was to them that the last call was issued.

The Democratic county committee has voiced its willingness to give Republican sitting judges twelve or thirteen of the twenty available places, but as the Democratic convention is next Tuesday the leaders insist on prompt decision by the wavering. This was disclosed following another conference of the bar association representatives with George E. Brennan and Dennis J. Egan, representing the Democrats, and Homer K. Galpin, Roy O. West, and John C. Cannon, representing the anti-Tamm Republicans.

The nine judges already "signed up" are the following:

Jesse Holdom, G. Fred Bush, Charles M. Thompson, Victor P. Arnold, Oscar M. Morrison, Kirkham Scanlan, David P. Matchett, David M. Brothers, Hugo Friend.

Two Stand by City Hall.

There is no expectation that two of the remaining Republican judges—Harry B. Miller and Anton T. Zeman—would even consider deserting the city hall, to which they owe their political existence. The other four judges are Judges Jesse A. Baldwin, Thomas Taylor Jr., Frederick R. De Young, and Charles A. Williams.

It is reported that Judge Windes has determined not to retire and that he will be a candidate.

Femina Frocks Details Are Left to Personal Selection

LUNCHEONS, bridge parties, and wedding affairs are numerous in the Spring, and are very often quite impromptu. For them, you must be correctly and smartly gowned. Many choose Custom Apparel because of its exquisite attention to detail, though time is required for creating as well as for careful finishing.

But in the Femina Frock the time of creating is eliminated. When you have selected your frock only one fitting is required after your selection of neckline and sleeves, and then it can be completed in a week. This makes the service of Femina Frocks indispensable for more impromptu affairs.

The Gentle Art of Contriving

Vogue would never, never—well, hardly ever—advise any woman to get on without a lovely new frock, a charming hat, or the pair of slippers that haunts her dreams.

Not Vogue contrives the smart fashion from its limited income by putting aside styers' churn and ingenuity to work on simple shell-pink shadow organdie, to which she adds organdie roses and a yucca-blue sash—and on yellow organdie with a cascade of dyed lace and a three-quarter length hemline.

And these are just two out of scores of suggestions—priced or priceless—in the Smart Fashions for Limited Incomes Number of Vogue.

SMART FASHIONS for LIMITED INCOMES number of

V O G U E

Contriving, according to Vogue's ideas, means economizing gracefully but effectively. So Vogue has planned and shopped and selected for this Smart Fashions Number with just two ideas in mind—a low price and a good value for you. It has found frocks and wraps and shoes and stockings and lingerie—and shows them all, with their prices.

Then into its pages Vogue puts its originality, its taste, its dash of the unexpected that is better than bargains in achieving the effect of crisp smartness. The sash, the flower, the frill, the tiny touch of Paris at a tiny Paris price, the airy trifle that turns a simple garment into a chic toilette—you find them all.

And, knowing that you won't want to come out well-dressed from a shabby and charmless house, Vogue has devoted much time and thought to the house that may be just as attractive as its mistress on an equally modest sum—and photographed it in detail for this issue, with directions, plans, and addresses.

This number of Vogue is as helpful as a cheque for a thousand dollars.

Things the Censor won't let you see in the Movies

DO YOU know that in one state a kiss may not be shown on the screen for more than five seconds?

The censors of the same state will not let you see a picture in which a happy young wife is shown sewing on baby-clothes. And they hastily conceal from your horrified gaze a title reading "if we only had a little one of our own"—supposed to be spoken by a wife to her husband.

Some of these things the censor will let you see in one state but not in another. In one, for instance, they will not let you see girls in one-piece bathing suits, although in another they have pronounced such garments entirely proper. In a certain state they forbade Jack London's "John Barleycorn" on the grounds that it encouraged intemperance, although everywhere else it was shown as an argument in favor of prohibition.

One state barred the "The Birth of a Nation". Another ruled against a patriotic film called "The Little American". A third refused a showing of "The Miracle Man", although in all the others it was commended as one of the most uplifting pictures ever produced. In certain localities pictures showing disputes between capital and labor are under the ban. The funny "Keystone Cops" were prohibited in one city on the grounds that they created disrespect for the police.

No one knows more about the actual workings of the censorship than Jesse L. Lasky, Vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation. Read what he has to say about it in

"Is There Any Sense In Censorship"

Galusha Bangs—Hero

You have to laugh at him, but you can't help loving him too

He was a queer bird—"kinder cracked on graveyards and tomb-stones"—but harmless. All the Cape Cod folks said so.

And certainly queer doings began that wet night when he loomed out of the fog from nowhere and fainted dead away at the feet of "Miss Marthy Phipps," spinster.

Queer, too, were the consequences that followed his chase through the grave-yard after his runaway hat. And that time that he went to the spirit seance—

He was so helpless and timid—yet, somehow, everybody found that he held their destinies in his hands!

You have to laugh at "Galusha"—the funny, absent-minded little professor who was raised to be a banker and turned out an Egyptologist—but you can't help loving him too.

The world needs to laugh just now, and Joseph C. Lincoln has put into "Galusha" a humor so irresistible that you couldn't help laughing if you tried.

Says the editor of Pictorial Review: "We have read 'Shavings,' and 'The Portygee,' and 'Cap'n Eri' and 'Obadiah' and we want to say that 'Galusha' is the best of the lot." Read this opening installment and understand why.

When dreams are danger signals.

Suppose you dreamed again and again that a savage cat was clawing at your throat, and then, quite by accident, your doctor discovered that you had a throat tumor—would you call it a coincidence?

Or if you had a vivid dream that you had been cut in two, and two days later you had been stricken with paralysis of one side—would you say it was merely chance?

Science has now made the startling discovery that it is perfectly sound instinct that makes us believe that dreams are warnings.

In this second of his series of startlingly revealing articles on dreams, H. Addington Bruce tells us how we can recognize and profit by these danger signals.

DEMOCRATS BOLT COLOMBIA PACT ON EVE OF VOTE

Administration Leaders Grow Anxious.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., April 19.—(Special.)—The Colombian treaty, which until today appeared certain of ratification, has been thrown into jeopardy by an unexpected break in the ranks of Democratic senators counted on to support it.

Administration leaders in charge of the treaty continued to predict victory, but they did not conceal their anxiety. Polls showed sixteen Republicans and six Democrats definitely opposed. A number of Democrats, heretofore regarded as supporters, were reported to be wavering. Thirty-three votes against the treaty would defeat it. The vote will be taken tomorrow.

Fear for Amendment.
Advocates were not so much concerned over the prospect of outright rejection as they were over the danger of amendment stripping the treaty of some of its most essential features. It was reported that the opposition would concentrate its strength behind an amendment to strike out special privileges granted to Colombia in the use of the canal.

Democratic senators were prepared to support such an amendment almost unanimously in coalition with the insurgent Republicans. Its adoption would require submission of the treaty to Colombia, and there is grave doubt whether she would accept it for the reason that the special privileges are of enormous value.

Senator Reed, Missouri, Democrat, declared his opposition today, although he has always been regarded as for it. He made a sarcastic attack on Republican senators, who, after opposing the treaty for seventeen years, are arguing now that its ratification would not reflect upon Roosevelt.

Selling Teddy's Memory.
"The greatest act of vandalism I have ever known is for a pretended friend of Roosevelt to reach his hand into the coffin of the helpless dead and tear from it the shroud and run it up as the white flag of surrender over the one great monument Roosevelt sought to erect to his memory," Senator Reed said.

Senator Willis, Ohio, Republican, announced he would vote for the treaty, although he has always opposed it. "I have conferred with the secretary of state and the President," he said. "They have told me some facts not yet known which argue strongly for ratification."

"WATERWAY TOO EXPENSIVE NOW," SMALL ASSERTS

Springfield, Ill., April 19.—Estimates of $25,000,000 on the cost of the Illinois waterway project are too large to consider pushing the work under present conditions, Gov. Small declared today. Until Illinois can have its "lakes to gut" link at nearer the $20,000,000 available the work will be delayed.

"I have been urged to push the waterway, but the very ones who are clamoring for its completion admit that the work cannot be done now for less than $25,000,000," Gov. Small said. "Other matters have pressed me too hard to permit me to go into the waterway proposition as thoroughly as I want to and shall do as soon as conditions will permit, but this is my present attitude."

SHIPBUILDING OF WORLD FALLS OFF

New York, April 19.—A decrease of approximately 1,000,000 tons in shipbuilding activity in all countries of the world for the three months ending March 31, is recorded by Lloyd's register of shipping, in a statement issued here today by its representatives.

"In the United States construction of 1,102,000 tons is under way, approximately 40 per cent of the total of one year ago."

"Total shipbuilding under way in the world on April 1 this year is given at 6,238,000 gross tons, compared with 7,239,000 on Jan. 1."

"Tank tonnage, the report continues, shows an increase, with the United States leading. The figures for this country show 632,016 gross tons, with Great Britain next, building 537,027 tons, and all other countries 131,190."

FESS ASKS SALES TAX TO PAY OFF FLOATING DEBT

Washington, D. C., April 19.—(Special.)—A general sales tax to provide funds for the retirement of the floating debt was advocated by Representative Fess, Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, today in a house speech.

Opposition to such a tax was manifested by members of the house and also in a movement started among western senators. It is believed thirty Republicans can be counted on to oppose it.

Mr. Fess proposed that the sales tax be limited to one year, during which time it should yield enough to pay off the floating debt, amounting to more than $2,500,000,000.

RAILROADS BIG WAGES MANY JOBS

Spring Work Is U. S. Busy

RAILROADS SAY
BIG WAGES KEEP
MANY JOBLESSSpring Work Is Held Up,
U. S. Board Told.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Western railroads told the labor board yesterday that present wage scales are making the unemployment situation tighter by preventing the roads from giving work to laborers, who are clamoring for jobs at cut rates. High wages, they declared, are keeping the roads from doing their regular spring "housecleaning" on the tracks, tamping down the ties and getting roadbeds in shape, while other industries are getting plenty of labor, when they can use it, at deflated rates of pay.

Typical of the exhibits was that filed by St. A. Sargent for the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. One complaint showed that for track labor in December, 1917, the road paid 21 to 25 cents an hour; in February, 1920, from 21 to 40 cents an hour, while the rate now fixed is from 45 1/2 cents an hour to 45 cents.

On 714 sections of the Northwestern system labor is seeking work at 40 cents. One section on the Ashland division was cited where labor is offered at 35 cents an hour. In Chicago employment agencies on Halsted street and Canal street were reported sending out labor squads to other industries to work for 25 to 35 cents an hour.

Not Earning Expenses.

"With the heaviest business in years," said Mr. Sargent, "we had only $500,000 out of last year's operation to meet interest and surplus. We're not earning operating expenses; no industry can live under such conditions."

Similar arguments were made by the Illinois Central, the Burlington, the Union Pacific, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, the Great Northern, the Northern Pacific, and nearly twenty other lines.

$120 a Month for Colored Women.

Fitzgerald Hall for the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad said his company was losing $3,000 a day. He cited the case of colored women, washing windows for railroads in the south, getting $120 a month, while skilled workers in some other industries are getting $110 to $125.

A brief filed by W. Jett Lauck, economist for the unions, amplified the contention of labor that a "banking-railroad-industrial combine" has brought about industrial stagnation with a definite aim to deflate labor.

Musical Wife Granted
Divorce from Juggler

The road of Mme. Antonia Dvorak Huston's musical career was cleared of all obstruction yesterday. Judge Charles M. Foele granted her a divorce and $2,500 lump alimony from her actor husband, Arthur J. Huston, who is a juggler.

"He abused me terribly and interfered with my musical work," testified Mme. Dvorak.

Mme. Dvorak is a niece of Anton Dvorak, famous musician and composer of "Humoresque." She is Bohemian.

M. W. KOZMINSKI
HANGS HIMSELF
IN HOTEL ROOM

New York, April 19.—[Special.]—Maurice W. Kozminski, director general of passenger traffic of the French line, hanged himself today in a bathroom at the Hotel Plaza.

He was despondent over the loss of his wife, who died last January. It was known that M. Kozminski had grieved continuously since her death. She was widely known in Chicago as well as New York—a woman of great beauty and fine qualities.

Mr. Kozminski was born in Chicago fifty-seven years ago, the son of a Polish father who was agent of the French line there. The elder Kozminski left a fortune of more than $5,000,000, a large portion of which came to Maurice. According to his associates in the French line, Maurice left more than $1,000,000.

He is survived by a daughter, Sybil, who is 20 years old and who lived with him at the Plaza, and by a son, Charles, 24, Chicago. His daughter made her debut about two years ago, the occasion being a large dance which was attended by many of the young people in the society of the city.

MAURICE W. KOZMINSKI.

LABOR NOTES

NEW YORK.—The American Steamship Owners' association, negotiating a new sailing agreement with its men, decided to cut wages on expiration of the present contract May 1 and to eliminate overtime pay.

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—Increases of 14 per cent in steel plant operations this week, compared with last, by tomorrow morning will bring mills of this district to a basis slightly over 40 per cent, it was said here.

DES MOINES, Ia.—Fourteen cities are making favorable progress toward a forty-four hour week, it was announced at the Missouri Valley Typographical conference.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The order of United States labor board that the St. Louis and Southwestern railroad restore the position and pay of section foremen and track laborers was described by J. M. Herbert, president of that road, as a "mandate for a closed shop."

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Thirty-five thousand employees of the Texas and Pacific railway have strike notice they refuse to accept a wage cut May 1. They threaten to shut up the system between here and El Paso.

RAILROADS NEED
$400,000,000 MORE,
SOLONS TOLD

Washington, D. C., April 19.—[Special.]—The senate today adopted the Cummins resolution providing for a sweeping investigation of the operation of the railroads since the government turned them back to their owners. The hearings will begin about May 1. The railroad executives probably will be heard first.

An additional appropriation of $400,000,000 to enable it to liquidate the affairs of federal control of the railroads will be asked by the United States railroad administration.

Officials of the railroad administration have indicated that approximately that much more money will be needed to defray the government's obligations. Congress has appropriated $1,750,000,000 for the railroad administration. If $400,000,000 additional is appropriated the total will reach $2,150,000,000. The first appropriation was for $500,000,000, which was carried in the federal control act.

Later a deficiency appropriation of $750,000,000 was made, and an appropriation of $200,000,000 was carried in the transportation act for the railroad administration. Following that an appropriation of $300,000,000 was authorized.

Why I Undersell All

Here is one thing I want you fellows to know—right now. Never before have I had such an extraordinary stock of high value all wool fabrics as I have just at this minute.

I have just received DIRECT FROM THE MILLS all my spring wools. They are the most beautiful goods I have seen, and I am glad to say the price will be just almost half those of early spring. Every piece of goods is guaranteed all wool—no matter what you pay. They are the fabrics high-price tailors use in their $75 to $125 suits—but my price for suits made to order from these very fabrics will be $39 and $49—and EXTRA TROUSERS ARE FREE WITH EVERY SUIT.

I carry more goods—and more styles in my Chicago store alone—than any other five tailors in this city combined. And here are the reasons why I can undersell all of them:

FIRST—I undersell the other tailors because they buy from the jobbers—whereas I buy DIRECT FROM THE MILLS—AND YOU SAVE THE JOBBERS' PROFIT.

SECOND—I undersell the wholesale tailor because he must maintain retail prices to protect his dealers in the country.

THIRD—I undersell the ready-made stores because you have to pay them the mills' profits, the clothes manufacturers' profits, the jobbers' profits and their own—whereas I buy fabrics DIRECT FROM THE MILLS—AND SELL DIRECT TO YOU.

That's why I will make to your order regular $75 to $125 suits for only $39, $49—and the EXTRA TROUSERS ARE FREE WITH EVERY SUIT.

GIBBONS IS DEAD; P. J. CARR SLATED FOR TREASURER

County Officer Will Be Buried Friday.

HARRY R. GIBBONS.

Funeral services for Harry R. Gibbons, county treasurer and north side Democratic leader, who died suddenly at West Baden Springs yesterday, will be held on Friday.

On that day both the city hall and county building will be closed. Special meetings of the city council and the county board will be held at 10 a. m. and at St. Paul's church, Catalpa avenue, near Broadway, at 10:30. The interment will be at Calvary. The list of active and honorary pallbearers will include the names of many Republicans as well as Democratic officials and leaders.

Did He Foresee Death?
Mr. Gibbons' death was a tremendous shock to all his friends although some of them saw in an interview he gave recently an intimation that he foresaw the sudden ending of his life.

At that time the possibilities of his being the Democratic nominee for the mayoralty in 1923 were being discussed and the subject was brought to his attention.

"Well," he said slowly, "that's two years off and I have seen a lot of men drop away in two years. Some of the men now being mentioned as candidates may not be alive when the election is held."

Mr. Gibbons was the fourth Democratic elected recently to high elective office to die before his term expired, the others being County Judge Thomas F. Sullivan, former Mayor George W. Sullivan, John F. O'Malley, Michael F. Sullivan, Robert Redfield, William and John Corbett, and Fred W. Block.

Pick Successor Today.
A number of well known Democrats were at West Baden when Mr. Gibbons dropped dead while walking with George Wagner, president of County Clerk Switzer, President Daniel Ryan of the county board, County Commissioner Emmett Whelan, and County Controller William J. Graham.

The county board probably will elect Mr. Gibbons' successor this afternoon. It is believed Patrick J. Carr, former alderman and sanitary trustee, will be chosen. Other candidates mentioned were Henry Stuckert, W. L. Graham, John E. Traeger, and James M. Daley.

Mr. Gibbons' election to the treasurer'ship in 1918 for a four year term gave him his first political office. In 1906 he was a candidate for sheriff, but was defeated. For many years he was a leader in the Twenty-first ward. About ten years ago he built the present family residence, opposite the Edge-water Beach, and became active in Twenty-fifth ward affairs.

Sold Newspapers.
Mr. Gibbons was born in Chicago avenue, near Townsend street. He attended the Kinzie school and after school hours sold papers at Randolph and Clark streets.

When he was 15 years old he began work in a box factory. He left there a few years later and began working for Marshall Field & Co. In 1897 he began business for himself in the box-making industry. He was successful and his fortune is estimated in excess of $500,000.

His family consists of his widow and a son, Walter C. Gibbons.

POOLE WILL START DRIVE TO REDUCE HIGH COST OF MILK

The city's two month investigation of the milk situation resulted yesterday in the announcement that a drive will be begun this week by the council committee on living costs to reduce the cost of milk to the consumer.

Russell J. Poole, secretary of the committee, who has gathered a mass of data on the cost of production and distribution of milk, requested, Ald. Max Adamowski, who ordered the inquiry, to call a meeting of the committee for consideration of Mr. Poole's report.

"We have sufficient data to prove beyond a doubt that the consumers should have a reduction in the price of milk," Mr. Poole's letter to the alderman says.

3 MARRIED MEN HELD ON CHARGES OF YOUNG GIRL

Benjamin Z. Bruckman, president of the Reliance Supply company at 1343 Clybourne avenue; Mark Blommanthal, 110 South Wabash avenue, a tailor; and Frank Olsen with offices in the Insurance Exchange building, all married, are held by the police on charges of contributing to the delinquency of children. It is charged they held two girls, 17 and 15 years old, prisoners in a south side hotel for three days.

The mother of one of the girls reported her daughter missing. Policewoman Theresa Johnson was assigned to the case. She found the girls at Michigan and Chicago avenue in a dazed condition.

The girl told how she and her companion were sitting in Lincoln park when Frank Olsen drove up and invited them for a ride. She said they accepted, and that after picking up Brinkman they drove to the Entertainers club, a black and tan resort, where they met Blommanthal. After they had many drinks, the girl said, the men took them to the hotel. Policewoman Johnson, Detective Sergeants Baynes, and Quinn were commended by Capt. Morgan Collier for work in the case.

Col. C. H. Greene Defeats Aurora's Labor Mayor

In the city's first election under the commission form of government, Col. Charles H. Greene, former commanding officer of the 139th infantry, was elected mayor of Aurora yesterday.

He defeated Mayor Charles A. Townsend, who was elected as a labor candidate when two years ago, by a margin of 529 votes. The election was warmly contested and a heavy vote—16,049—was cast. The commissioners elected were John Armbruster, W. E. Barclay, E. W. Thompson, and John Wetz.

IRISH APPEAL FOR HARDING'S HELP IN ERIN'S CAUSE

Big Convention Ends with Declaration for Liberty.

Two days of fiery appeal in Madison temple by the 5,000 delegates to the first annual convention of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic ended last night with formal adoption of resolutions in support of Erin's fight for independence. Chief among these was one calling upon President Harding to acknowledge the sovereignty of Ireland. This read in part:

"It is hereby resolved that the Irish Republic is, and of right is entitled to be, a free sovereign nation."

"That it is entitled to recognition by the President of the United States as a sovereign state, and said association hereby respectfully urges the President to confer upon such nation and the government thereof the recognition of the government of the United States of America in accordance with the practice and forms heretofore established by the government of the United States in granting recognition to other states, peoples, governments, and nations."

Another resolution, obviously directed as a blow to English trade, urged the association's members to buy only American made goods.

Asylum in America for Donal O'Callaghan, stowaway lord mayor of Cork, who has been ordered by the state department to leave the country within sixty days, and the organization's sympathy for India's revolutionary forces were the subjects of other resolutions.

Officers Are Elected.
Election of officers for the ensuing year also marked the closing session. Two of those named by De Valera when the organization was formed in Washington, Nov. 15, 1920, were re-elected. These are E. L. Doherty, Los Angeles, Cal., millionaire oil man, president, and J. J. Hearn of Westfield, Mass., treasurer.

Justice John W. Goff of New York, chairman of the convention, declined to be a candidate for reelection to the office of first vice president, pleading ill health. Maj. Eugene F. Kinkaid of Newark, N. J., was elected in his place.

Mrs. Mary McWhorter, national president of the women's auxiliary, and a member of the executive committee, was elected second vice president, was the only woman elected.

New Yorkers Disappointed.
Five hundred members of the New York delegation to the convention dropped into the city hall expecting to hear a speech by Mayor Thompson. They found the mayor absent. Father Edmund J. Codd, who led the delegation, said "the mayor invited us here through Mr. Ralph Steinberg, chairman of the New York delegation."

After some delay the council chamber was unlocked and the delegation entered. It was then announced that because of the death of Harry Gibbons the meeting had been called off.

BOYS' WEEK PLANS ANNOUNCED BY JUDGE ARNOLD

A campaign to rivet public attention to boys and their needs will be started May 6, when "Boys' week" will be observed in Chicago. Judge Victor P. Arnold, chairman of the campaign committee, made the announcement yesterday.

Each day of that week has been designated as Boys' day for a special purpose. On the first day a parade will be held, with boys' units, bands, floats, and demonstrations. Other days will be devoted to athletics, church, school, health, industry, and entertainment.

May 13 will be Boys' day at home, and parents will be urged to spend that evening in the home with the boy. Gen. Leroy T. Steward will be in charge of the procession inaugurating the week.

Big Grocers Named in 17 Criminal Bills in U. S. Court

District Attorney Charles F. Cline filed seventeen criminal bills of information charging violation of the food and drug laws, castle quarantine, insecticide and migratory bird acts before Federal Judge K. M. Landis yesterday.

Six railroads ending and several firms, including Teister & Garland's, 16 North Michigan avenue, and J. J. Badnoch company, 400 North Union avenue are named. All are alleged to have shipped articles banned by the laws named in and out of Chicago.

COUNCIL TO ACT ON NEW SCHOOL LAND MEASURE

Will Fight to Retain Power Over Sales.

The city council will meet in special session this afternoon to protest to the legislature against the proposal that the school board be given full power to dispose of school lands without approval of the city council.

Holds the Move "All Wrong."
"The proposal that the right to sell school land be taken from an elective body and given to an appointive body is all wrong," said Ald. John S. Clark, chairman of the council schools committee, who with Ald. Horan and Link signed the special session call.

"The methods of the school board in dealing in school lands is not free from the breath of scandal at present and it will be a sorry day for the school children if the Baldwin bill passes," said Ald. Link.

Railroad After School Lands.
John Dooley, 5215 Gladys avenue, told the schools committee yesterday that the Soo line railroad is attempting to acquire fifty acres of school land for use as railroad yards in the district bounded by Cicero and Central avenues, Roosevelt road and Madison street.

"As organized at present it is not possible to get minutes of school board meetings for three weeks after the meetings," he said. "If this bill passes school lands may be sold without the people knowing anything about it."

CHICAGO CHINESE PARADE IN HONOR OF NEW PRESIDENT

Two hundred Chicago Chinamen paraded yesterday to demonstrate their sentiments in favor of the new Chinese president, Dr. Sun Yat Sen. They marched through Chinatown, Twenty-second street, Wabash avenue, Burn, street, State street, and back to Twenty-second street and Archer avenue, with two bands playing.

Bob Lee, "mayor of Chinatown" organized and led the parade. There were two big banners, one reading "We favor a true Republic of China," and the other "We recognize Dr. Sun Yat Sen as our constitutional president."

Kids Along North Shore Neglect Learning to Swim

After making a personal survey of grammar school pupils of Rogers Park, Evanston, and Winnetka, Otto E. Freedland, physical director of the Evanston Young Men's Christian association, announced yesterday that out of 883 children questioned, 512 of them were unable to swim.

AUTO VICTIM

Child at Play on Lawn in Evanston Home Loses Life
When She Rushes Into Street.

DORIS WEILAND.
(Photo: West-Moore.)

Three year old Doris Weiland, daughter of John Weiland, wealthy Evanston florist, was killed last night in front of her home, 1516 Greenwood boulevard, when she was struck by an auto of which Norman White, 22 years old, son of a butler in the Evanston home of John C. Shaffer, newspaper owner, was the driver.

White was held by Capt. Dennis McEnery pending the coroner's inquest.

Little Doris had gone out on the lawn of the Weiland residence to play with her new kitty car. She reached down into the street for her toy, according to witnesses, and the heavy car ran into her. It was driven twenty feet across the lawn before it came to a halt.

IDENTIFIED AS "CONROY," KILLS SELF WITH GUN

The body of an unidentified man was found last night by a 6 year old girl lying beneath a rock six miles from St. Charles, Ill.

The body was dressed in expensive clothing. In the pockets of the suit were found an Elgin gold watch and $4 in cash. The man wore platinum and gold cuff links and a gold scarf pin. The only identification mark was the name "Conroy" written on the inside coat pocket.

A 38 secret service special revolver was found grasped in the right hand. There was a bullet hole through the temple.

The body was taken to the Norris & Sons undertaking rooms in St. Charles.

LAWYERS TO GUARD CHILDREN TWIST UP LIFE OF MARY

Take Girl, 14, from Her Husband, Home, Baby.

Numerous juvenile laws have broken up the home of Mary Prohownik, taken her from her baby and her baby's father, shut her in a house where she is strictly guarded, and so tangled the threads of her life they may never be untwisted.

Mary is only 14 years old. In July, 1919, she left the home of her parents, 4744 South Ada street, and went to Detroit with Steve Danko. They got a marriage license and a home.

A boy baby was born. Thirteen year old Mary was happy.

Parents and Law Intervene.
When Mary was 14 years old there came the lash of the law. Children are permitted to work in Illinois when they are 14. Mary's parents took her away from Steve and brought her to Chicago, where she might work. The Children's Aid society aided the parents, who agreed to care for the baby.

But there came another law. Mary had not gone beyond third grade in school. It wasn't her fault, she said. She had to stay home and help her mother. If she had finished fifth grade she might have been permitted to work.

Mary's folks believed this might be remedied. Another law barred that door. Because of her motherhood she could not mingle with other girls in school.

The parents turned her over to the juvenile court, organized for the protection of children. Mary was separated from her baby. She was placed in the juvenile detention home. She was allowed to go out every night to see her baby, however—this by special permission.

Puts Case Up to Judge.
The case reached the attention of Miss Bees Sullivan, assistant state's attorney, and today she will appear before Miss Mary Bartelme, assistant to Judge Victor P. Arnold, in the juvenile court, to see what can be done for Mary.

Mary wants to go back to Steve and the little home in Detroit where she was so happy—but there seems little likelihood of that. The law, or its interpreters, hold that a 14 year old girl is too young to be a wife and mother.

Dr. Roe Given 18 Months in Leavenworth Prison

Judge Landis yesterday sentenced Dr. J. Newton Roe, former owner of the New Southern hotel, who was recently convicted of violation of the prohibition statutes, to serve a year and a half in Leavenworth federal prison.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five
Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.
What is the first thing you notice about a person you meet for the first time?

Where Asked.
Michigan avenue and South Water street.The Answers.
Douglas O. Anderson, 2408 Orrington avenue, Evanston, secretary, seldom meet women, but when I do I blush and am scarcely able to see them. With men I usually notice their general make up and any mannerisms they may have.

Catherine Kostelna, 1514 Cortland street, telephone operator—I usually notice the way a person walks and his clothing. And especially I note the kind of shoes he or she wears. I think I can only say I have about one's character by the shoes and ankles of men and women.

Edward H. Burns Jr., 1403 Winnetmac avenue, advertising man—As a bachelor I can only say I notice whether she's a blonde or brunette. After that I try to guess her age and determine if the wedding ring is 14 carat. If it's a man—well, a man isn't always heavy mentally just because he wears loud clothing.

Ether Cookson, 400 North Trumbull avenue, telephone operator—The first thing I notice about a person I meet is the facial expression, whether in a happy or cross mood. If I'm at a party I'm likely to notice how a man's hair is parted, shoes polished, and finger nails cleaned.

Leon Wood, 2027 Pratt court, Evanston, church representative—I first notice a person's eyes and mouth. From them I deduce habits of mind and state of health. I've studied character analysis and I never notice clothes to learn one's character. Sometimes you can learn a good deal from a handshake.

WIFE SEEMS MISSING HUSBAND.
The Maxwell street police were asked to search for William Gramel, 60 years old, 203 Central street, Michigan City, Ind. His wife, Mrs. Anna Gramel, asked that the search be made. He has been missing since last September.

FIND PRICE FIXED ON BRICK, STONE, SAND, PLUMBING

Legislators Uncover New "Building Trusts."

National price fixing of building materials by four more associations of dealers in Chicago were uncovered at yesterday's session of the Daley joint legislative investigation.

Testimony given during the afternoon showed that in addition to the Chicago Retail Lumber Dealers' association, organizations of brick, stone, gravel and sand, and plumbing supplies dealers operate quasi-price fixing bureaus similar to the alleged "Belly plan" of the lumber men. These associations control the material market not only in Chicago but throughout Illinois and nearly all the other states. "These local organizations are tied up with the associations of the men from manufacturers, and when the dealer who has offered seeks additional materials the only reply, whether it comes from Chicago, Texas, or Maine, is that there is none on hand to send him. In the meantime the other dealers continue to get all the materials they want and are able to sell it. The man who sold cheaper must either agree to obey the rules or get out of business."

Easy to Punish Dealer.
"How does it happen? Easy. The local organization notifies the association of manufacturers, and when the dealer who has offered seeks additional materials the only reply, whether it comes from Chicago, Texas, or Maine, is that there is none on hand to send him. In the meantime the other dealers continue to get all the materials they want and are able to sell it. The man who sold cheaper must either agree to obey the rules or get out of business."Investigators Hunt "Leak."
Efforts to find a "leak" in the inquiry room were made yesterday afternoon. It was learned, following the announcement that a prominent Chicago contractor has fled the state after learning his name was mentioned as a witness on Monday.

"We have some positive evidence against this man, and the fact that he has fled makes it all the more convincing," said Senator Daley.

A letter from forty building trades workers who asked the committee to help them get rid of their president and business agent, whom they characterized as the "biggest crooks in Chicago," was received.

Fight for Rent Bills.
Leaders of the Tenants' league will be in Springfield this afternoon when the house judiciary committee will report out two of the Keesinger rent relief bills. The fight for the bills will be led by Representative Pierce, Republican William Holliday, Republican floor leader; Minority Leader John Devine, and Sidney Lyon.Stepdaughter Helps
Mrs. Cowan Get Divorce
Aided by her step-daughter, Mrs. Martha C. Cowan, of 7153 Euclid avenue, obtained a divorce and $310 a month alimony yesterday from her husband, George H. Cowan, vice president of Wilson & Co. The decree was signed by Judge Lewis. Mrs. Cowan declared she had done her best to be "a mother" to her husband's three children since she married in July, 1909, but he had been constantly cruel. She was also given the Cowan summer home at Sylvan lake.Man, 72, Holds Robbers at Bay with Empty Gun
George Kemple, 72 years old, stood off a couple of Negro bandits with a double barreled shotgun yesterday when they robbed the grocery of his son Charles, 6508 South State street. The old man forgot the gun was empty and pulled the trigger twice. Then the robbers opened fire, wounding Charles Kemple in the right arm.
